Snowman Candle Lamp
Palette: Antique Rose, Burnt Sienna, Deep Midnight Blue, Lamp Black, Light Buttermilk, Persimmon, Snow White, Tangerine

Other Supplies: Paint Adhesion Medium #84185, Identi Pen #70830, 20mm Canadian Pine #63083, Acrylic Sealer Finisher Matte Spray #70836, Rusted Tin Mini Snowflakes #70261, Baker’s Twine #70259, Glamour Dust Sapphire Blue #13600, Glamour Dust Ice Crystal #13598, Neons Torrid Orange #18017

Brushes: Papillon 5 Piece Deerfoot Set #20167, Papillon 4 Piece Highlighter Set #20173, Papillon 5/8” Angular Shader #20112, Papillon 3 Piece Midliner Set #20171

Combine the Paint Adhesion Medium and Deep Midnight Blue per the instructions for the adhesion medium. With your largest Deerfoot brush, stipple the Deep Midnight Blue mixture all over the candle lamp. Let dry and stipple over the entire lamp again with Light Buttermilk. Let dry. Using your angle brush and Deep Midnight Blue shade around the base of the lamp, around all of the drips and in the deep grooves on the top of the lamp, as well as around where the lightbulb goes. Next highlight the center of the lamp and the drip marks with Snow White and your Highlighter brush. Transfer the pattern on to the face. Lightly brush on the cheeks with a Highlighter brush and Antique Rose. Paint the nose Persimmon, shade with Burnt Sienna at the base of the nose, highlight the tip with Torrid Orange. Paint the eyes Lamp Black. With your Identi Pen draw on the mouth and eyelashes, and the detail lines around the nose. Add a highlight dot to the eyes and cheeks with Snow White. When dry, add Ice Crystal Glamour Dust to the whitest parts of the drips, and add Sapphire Blue Glamour Dust to the shaded areas of the drips. Spray with varnish. Then, using a hot glue gun, glue one branch of the Canadian Pine to the base of the candle and add one rusty snowflake. Make a small bow with the Baker’s Twine and glue onto the snowflake.

New Electric Candle Lamp
Paint some antique designs on this decorative candle lamp. Includes bulb and extra long 5 foot cord with on/off switch. Approx 5¼” x 3½”.
